Berlin, February 14. N. S.

ON Wednesday last the Envoy of Muscovy notified to the King the Death of the young Prince of Courland, who died suddenly on the Road between Petersberg and Riga; whereupon his Majesty and the whole Court went into Mourning the Friday following. The Loss of this Prince is highly Regretted by the King, who is likwise much concerned for the Death of Monsieur Schmettau, his Plenipotentiary at the Hague. His Majesty has not yet resolv'd who shall succeed him in that Employment; but it is generally thought the Choice will fall on Count Metternich, who is at present at Vienna. Monsieur Ilgen, Secretary of State, went on Tuesday last with the other Commissioners to Spandaw, in order to a farther Examination of the Grand Marshal. As they have not been able to prove any Thing against him upon the former Articles, they proceeded to examine him upon several new ones; to which he answer'd in general, that being of a long standing, they were quite out of his Memory; but that if he might be permitted to have his Papers, he made no doubt but it wou'd be easy for him to clear himself of them all; alledging at the same time, that he had done nothing but by particular Order from the King and his Ministers. It being generally reported here, that the Swedes in Pomerania have receiv'd Orders to March out of that Dutchy into Poland, the Ministers of the three Northern Confederates are mighty active at this Court, and earnestly endeavour to engage his Majesty more strictly in their Masters Interests.

Hanover, February 20. N. S. On the 13th Instant his Electoral Highness sent a Lieutenant-Colonel and three hundred Men to seize on Peyna, a Town belonging to the Bishoprick of Hildesheim, which Bishoprick was possess'd formerly by the House of Brunswick; but in the Year 1643 it was resign'd, with all its Dependencies, to the Roman Catholicks, who obliged themselves upon that Resignation, to preserve the Protestants in the free Enjoyment of all their Rights and Privileges; notwithstanding which they have acted contrary to that Agreement in many Instances, to the great Prejudice of the Protestants, and lately destroy'd one of their Churches. This occasion'd several Complaints in their behalf, but the Roman Catholicks, instead of Redressing their Grievances, declar'd they did not think themselves bound to observe the Terms of the Capitulation; whereupon the Elector of Hanover commanded his Troops to take Possession of Peyna, and soon after sent a Councellor to acquaint the Chapter of Hildesheim with the Reasons that oblig'd him to this Expedition. The Chapter seem much alarm'd at these Proceedings, and have sent a Deputy to this Court; notwithstanding which his Electoral Highness order'd five Companies of Foot to March yesterday in the Evening into the Territories of the Bishoprick, and oblige the Roman Catholicks to a better Observance of their Agreement. A Courier passed lately through this Place, in his way from Bender to Sweden, whither he is sent by his Swedish Majesty, with Dispatches for the Regency and Senate of that Kingdom; and yesterday Colonel Poniatosky, Brother to the King of Sweden's Ambassador at the Port, arrived here likewise from Bender, and is suddenly to set out from hence for Stockholm. He reports, that the Turkish Army in the Neighbourhood of Bender encreaseth daily, and that it was forty-five thousand Men strong when he left that Place.

Brussels, February 23. N. S. Our Letters from the Frontiers advise, that Marshal Villars was expected this Day at Arras; and that tho' the French Officers had receiv'd repeated Orders to have their Companies compleat by a time prefix'd under severe Penalties, yet they were very backward in their Recruits, and the great Scarcity of Mony which continues still among 'em, hath expos'd 'em to many Difficulties in that Service. The 17th Instant being the Queen of Great Britain's Birth-Day, was Celebrated here with the usual Demonstrations of Joy, and the greatest Marks of Zeal and Affection were shown on this Occasion by the Government and People, in acknowledgment of the good Effects they receive from her Majesty's Protection. Our Letters from Paris of the 16th confirm the Accounts we had receiv'd before, that the Forts of Gironne were evacuated the 31st of the last Month; and that the Count de Brancas, a Lieutenant-General in the French King's Service, was made Governor of the Place. These Letters add, that the Duke of Medina Celi was dead in the Castle of Pampeluna. Letters of the 2d Instant from Saragossa advise, that the Duke of Vendome was set out from thence the Day before, in order to join the Army, which was marched towards the Segra, and was to be distributed into Winter Quarters in those Parts.

Hague, February 24. N. S. The Conferences for the Operations of the next Campaign are continued, and the General Officers of the Army are daily assisting in the Council of State on that Subject. My Lord Townshend, her Majesty's Ambassador here, has deliver'd a Letter to the States-General, in Answer to one they had wrote to the Queen, desiring the Duke of Marlborough might be speedily order'd to return hither, to concert the necessary Measures for the Campaign, and to put them in Execution as early as possible, which her Majesty is pleased to comply with. On the 15th Instant Monsieur Calemberg was declared Admiral of the Meuse, in the room of Monsieur Allemonde, lately Deceased; and Lieutenant-General Hompesch was this Day made Colonel of the Regiment of Horse-Guards, in the room of the Earl of Galway, who desir'd to lay down that Employment. A Courier is arriv'd here from Monsieur Colliers, the States Ambassador at Constantinople. The Ottoman Court have lately made some Overtures to that Minister, as if the States Mediation for an Accommodation with his Czarish Majesty wou'd be acceptable to the Port, upon which he desires to receive their Instructions to the Troubles in Hungary. It is said the Castle of Muran has surrendred to the Imperialists, and that the Town of Cassbau will soon be obliged to do the like. The Turks have demanded a Passport for an Aga, who is to assure his Imperial Majesty, in his Master's Name, that the Port has no Design to act in any wise contrary to the Treaty of Carlowitz. The States are raising two Millions of Florins more by way of Loan, for which they are to pay ten per Cent. for twenty Years, and sink the Principal. The Ministers of the Allies have delivered Monsieur Palmquist, the Swedish Envoy, a new Project for the Preservation of the Neutrality in the North; whereupon an Express has been sent to his Swedish Majesty at Bender, and another to the Senate in Sweden, on that Subject.

The Commissioners for Victualling her Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Friday the 23d Instant, in the forenoon, they will be ready at their Office on Towerhill to receive Proposals, and treat with such Persons as are inclinable to furnish Oxen and Hogs for the Service of her Majesty's Navy at the Port of Portsmouth.

Notice is hereby given by the Agent to the Captors, That the Officers and Companies of her Majesty's Ships the Monk and Mountague, may, at Mr. Master's House in Tower-hill, London, receive (according to the Gracious Proclamation of the 20th of May, 1708.) their several Shares of the Prize Francis d' Assize, Condemn'd as Prize to the said Ships. The Monk's Officers and Company may receive their Shares on Wednesday the 28th Instant, and the Mountague's on Thursday the 1st of March next; and that the Shares of such as shall not then be received, may, during the space of three Years, be every Morning received at the Place aforesaid.
